E. GRANADOS

DANZAS ESPAÑOLAS

Enrique Granados (July 27, 1867 – March 24, 1916) was a Spanish composer and pianist of classical music; he is commonly considered to be a representative of musical Nationalism, and as such his music is in a uniquely Spanish style. He was also a talented painter in the style of Goya.

Granados wrote piano music, chamber music (a piano quintet, music for violin and piano), songs, zarzuelas, and an orchestral tone poem based on Dante's Divine Comedy. Many of his piano compositions have been transcribed for the classical guitar and are some of the most beautiful music in the guitar repertoire: examples include Dedicatoria, Danza No. 5.

Tore Morten Andreassen and Karsten Andersson both hold teaching posts at Tromsø University College, Faculty of Art, Music Conservatory. In addition to having made several recordings together, they have published several books and collections of music.
